

Since satellite radio is a private, subscription only service I'm curious why the NAB could successfully complain. Of course, Rep Green does represent the 29th Congressional district (Houston and Harris County), which is one of the few districts in the US which could perceive benefits from wasting gasoline.

What an incredibly stupid piece of legislation.